Nektarios the Wonderworker Bishop of Pentapolis

Saint Nectarius was born in Selyvria of Thrace on October 1, 1846. After putting himself through school in Constantinople with much hard labour, he became a monk on Chios in 1876, receiving the monastic name of Lazarus; because of his virtue, a year later he was ordained deacon, receiving the new name of Nectarius. Under the patronage of Patriarch Sophronius of Alexandria, Nectarius went to Athens to study in 1882; completing his theological studies in 1885, he went to Alexandria, where Patriarch Sophronius ordained him priest on March 23, 1886 in the Cathedral of Saint Sabbas, and in August of the same year, in the Church of Saint Nicholas in Cairo, made him Archimandrite. Archimandrite Nectarius showed much zeal both for preaching the word of God, and for the beauty of God's house. He greatly beautified the Church of Saint Nicholas in Cairo, and years later, when Nectarius was in Athens, Saint Nicholas appeared to him in a dream, embracing him and telling him he was going to exalt him very high.

On January 15, 1889, in the same Church of Saint Nicholas, Nectarius was consecrated Metropolitan of the Pentapolis in eastern Libya, which was under the jurisdiction of Alexandria. Although Nectarius' swift ascent through the degrees of ecclesiastical office did not affect his modesty and childlike innocence, it aroused the envy of lesser men, who convinced the elderly Sophronius that Nectarius had it in his heart to become Patriarch. Since the people loved Nectarius, the Patriarch was troubled by the slanders. On May 3, 1890, Sophronius relieved Metropolitan Nectarius of his duties; in July of the same year, he commanded Nectarius to leave Egypt.

Without seeking to avenge or even to defend himself, the innocent Metropolitan left for Athens, where he found that accusations of immorality had arrived before him. Because his good name had been soiled, he was unable to find a position worthy of a bishop, and in February of 1891 accepted the position of provincial preacher in Euboea; then, in 1894, he was appointed dean of the Rizarios Ecclesiastical School in Athens. Through his eloquent sermons his unwearied labours to educate fitting men for the priesthood, his generous alms deeds despite his own poverty, and the holiness, meekness, and fatherly love that were manifest in him, he became a shining light and a spiritual guide to many. At the request of certain pious women, in 1904 he began the building of his convent of the Holy Trinity on the island of Aegina while yet dean of the Rizarios School; finding later that his presence there was needed, he took up his residence on Aegina in 1908, where he spent the last years of his life, devoting himself to the direction of his convent and to very intense prayer; he was sometimes seen lifted above the ground while rapt in prayer. He became the protector of all Aegina, through his prayers delivering the island from drought, healing the sick, and casting out demons. Here also he endured wicked slanders with singular patience, forgiving his false accusers and not seeking to avenge himself. Although he had already worked wonders in life, an innumerable multitude of miracles have been wrought after his repose in 1920 through his holy relics, which for many years remained incorrupt. There is hardly a malady that has not been cured through his prayers; but Saint Nektarios is especially renowned for his healings of cancer for sufferers in all parts of the world.

President's Report General Assembly – November 4, 2018

It's great to be here this morning to hear the many accomplishments of the committees and ministries of our church. It is a testament to the love and commitment of the members of our parish. I'm continually impressed and thankful to those who donate their time, talent and treasure.

This is my last report as President of the Parish Council. I've been on the council for eleven years, and President for the past six. I've been blessed to work with skilled, professional, and dedicated members, all with a goal of upholding the holy canons and teachings of the church, and seeing our community thrive.

As I look back over the past, I'm thankful for everything, that all of us as a community, have been able to maintain, grow, and accomplish. We developed and instituted:

- a strategic plan to define our vision and mission;
- a council of ministries to improve communication, and to keep all informed about our ministries;
- an outreach ministry;
- and a church renewal committee.

We've also attended national and metropolis clergy laity conferences, developed and supported our fundraisers, wrote By-laws, maintained successful finances with good budgeting and spending reductions, maintained the church and community center, managed a successful lawsuit that restored the community centers roofing, stucco and other systems to their original intent, and continue to operate a first-class day care center thanks to the leadership of the TLC board and the dedication of the Trinity Learning Center staff. We need to continue to work together with TLC to maintain this excellent educational system.

To everyone who worked so hard to develop and implement these actions, I say thank you. We can all be proud of these accomplishments. What we have developed must continue to be nurtured and used by future parish councils.

While on the council, I've always had the best interests of you, the parishioners, on my mind when trying to manage matters of importance. I know that the council has too, so I hope that everyone knows that the church has been well cared for, to the best of our ability.

I'm thankful for the memory and support of our dearly departed Father Demetrios. He gave me encouragement when needed, and words of wisdom continuously.

I'd like to express gratitude to the presidents before me, especially Yianni. He mentored me to take on the role of president, and based on his multitude of experience, provided good advice and guidance when needed.

To our beloved priest, Father George, I'd like to say thank you for your spiritual leadership, your guidance, your support, and your friendship. Your love and support of the parish is immeasurable, and we are continuously thankful to be with you.

Being on the parish council and in any officer position can be stressful at times, because issues have to be contemplated, and worry about the outcomes becomes natural, so I'd like to say thank you to Athena for basically putting up with me at certain times when stress was evident, or when meetings needed my time.

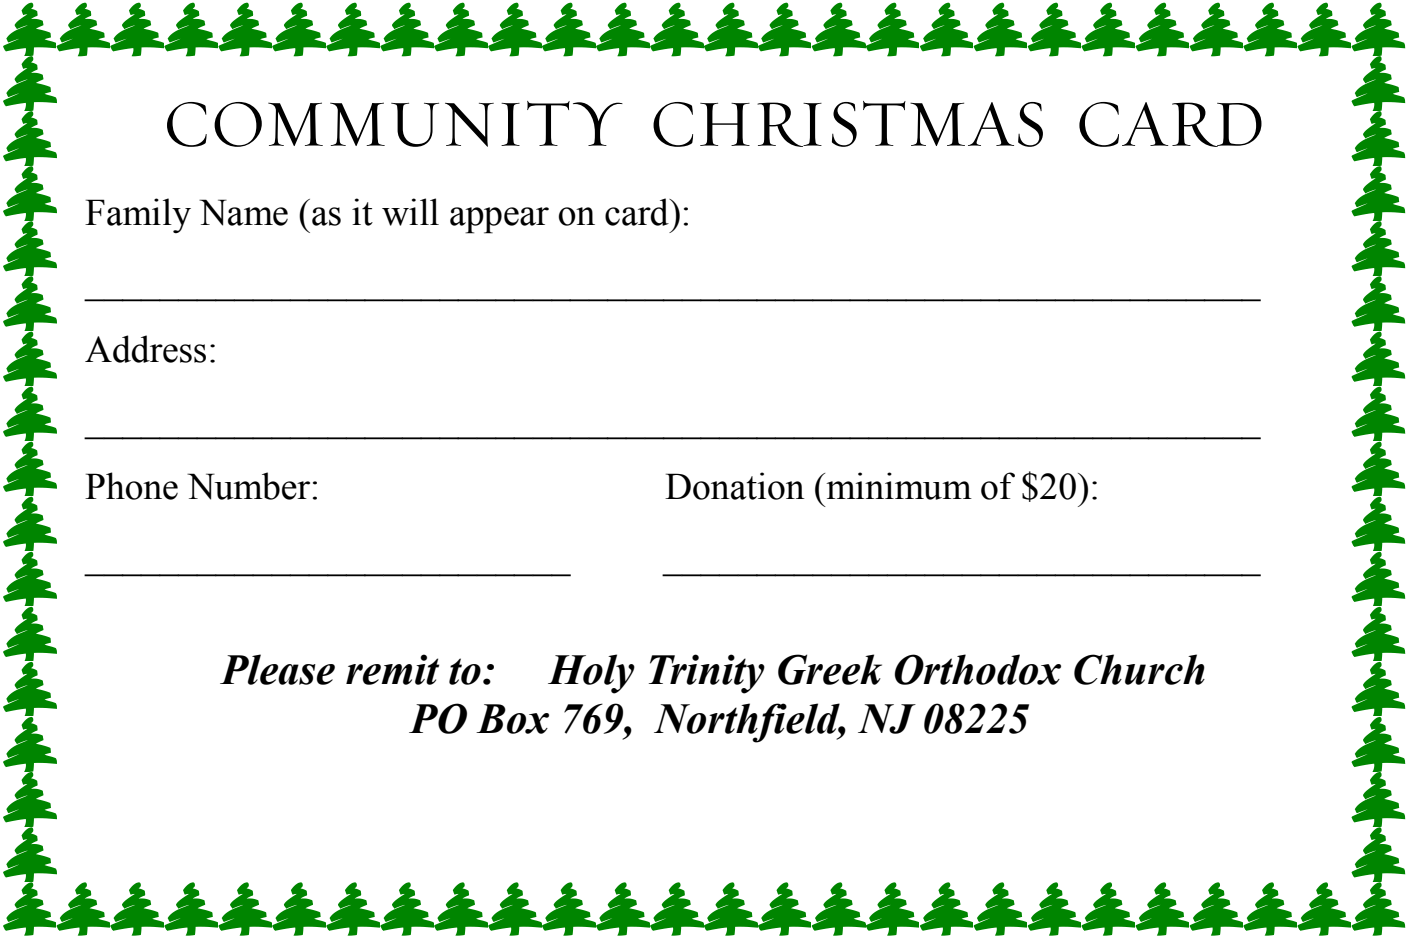

Finally, I'd like to express gratitude to Lisa Mitoulis, our parish administrator. Her dedication and professionalism to the administrative needs of the parish are commendable. I've seen that the administrative responsibilities of the church and community center are, at times, very complex and detailed. Over the years she has been of great support to me and the parish council. She's always been available to answer questions, provide information, and to complete responsibilities. It's been a pleasure working with her.

I wish the incoming parish council well. I hope that they continue to pursue the goals that have been set, all with a goal of upholding the traditions of our faith.

Thank you for your time today, and may God always bless our parish.

Brian Sacco,
Parish Council President

PRAYER FOR ENEMIES

Lord Jesus Christ, in Your great mercy You prayed for the forgiveness of those who crucified You, and You taught us to love our enemies and to pray for those who persecute us. Lord, I pray that You forgive those who treat me unjustly and speak out against me, and that You bless them and guide them according to Your will. Take away any bitterness I may have in my heart against them. Lord, may Your forgiveness, goodness and love be revealed in all of us, to Your praise and glory. Amen.

Saint Catherine, who was from Alexandria, was the daughter of Constan (or Cestus). She was an exceedingly beautiful maiden, most chaste, and illustrious in wealth, lineage, and learning. By her steadfast understanding, she utterly vanquished the passionate and unbridled soul of Maximinus, the tyrant of Alexandria; and by her eloquence, she stopped the mouths of the so-called philosophers who had been gathered to dispute with her. She was crowned with the crown of martyrdom in the year 305. Her holy relics were taken by Angels to the holy mountain of Sinai, where they were discovered many years later; the famous monastery of Saint Catherine was originally dedicated to the Holy Transfiguration of the Lord and the Burning Bush, but later was dedicated to Saint Catherine. According to the ancient usage, Saints Catherine and Mercurius were celebrated on the 24th of this month, whereas the holy Hieromartyrs Clement of Rome and Peter of Alexandria were celebrated on the 25th. The dates of the feasts of these Saints were interchanged at the request of the Church and Monastery of Mount Sinai, so that the festival of Saint Catherine, their patron, might be celebrated more festively together with the Apodosi of the Feast of the Entry of the Theotokos. The Slavic Churches, however, commemorate these Saints on their original dates.

Andrew the First- Called Apostle : This Saint was from Bethsaida of Galilee; he was the son of Jonas and the brother of Peter, the chief of the Apostles. He had first been a disciple of John the Baptist; afterwards, on hearing the Baptist's witness concerning Jesus, when he pointed Him out with his finger and said, "Behold the Lamb of God, Which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1.29,36), he straightway followed Christ, and became His first disciple; wherefore he is called the First-called of the Apostles. After the Ascension of the Saviour, he preached in various lands; and having suffered many things for His Name's sake, he died in Patras of Achaia, where he was crucified on a cross in the shape of an "X," the first letter of "Christ" in Greek; this cross is also the symbol of Saint Andrew.

The Macdonald Family

Serving in Albania

Dr. Jeffrey and Caryn Macdonald live in the village of Shen Vlash in Albania as long-term missionaries. They are both teaching at the Resurrection Orthodox Theological Academy in Shen Vlash, near Durres. The theological academy was established in 1992 to train Albanian clergy and church workers to help restore Church life after the period of communist persecution.

Dr. Macdonald previously taught for many years at St. Herman's Seminary in Kodiak helping to prepare Native Alaskans to serve in the Church in Alaska. Dr. Macdonald studied at St. Vladimir's Orthodox Seminary, following an undergraduate degree in Biblical Studies and Archaeology at Wheaton College, in Illinois. He later completed a doctoral degree in Early Christian Studies at the Catholic University of America, in Washington, D.C.

The Macdonalds have five children: Alexander 22, Anna 19, Elizabeth 14, Andrew 10, and Katherine 8. They are seeking monthly supporters to help sustain their work in Albania.

Help make Disciples of all nation! Thank you for considering a donation to the Orthodox Christian Mission Center. By funding OCMC programs that proclaim the fullness of the Gospel, support indigenous clergy, and fund Church ministries that help Her to witness to people around the world, your prayerful gift works toward making disciples of all nations.

Plateia Night

One or two hours per week of Greek School is not enough. Add to the task of learning the language the fact that there are games, songs, dances and foods which round-out the Greek experience we would like the kids exposed to, and it seems impossible to make any meaningful progress. So, again this year, we will have a Plateia Night ('a night in village square'), where many of these things are learned by young visitors to Greece.

It is open to all students and their parents, and will feature a variety of activities, with the goal of giving the kids a venue to use some of the Greek they are learning. We will do songs, games, cartoons, dances, and may even have some Greek sweets. Ask the children what they have enjoyed the most over the last few years of Greek School, and your answer will likely include some of the extra-curricular things.

Our first Plateia Night will be on Wednesday, November 14th. Please see the weekly newsletter, Herald or web site for updates!

HOLY TRINITY PB&J PROJECT FOR SISTER JEAN'S KITCHEN

Nearly twenty years ago, a retired casino chef, Sister Jean Webster, opened her kitchen to a homeless man. Today, her operation has grown and relocated, providing food for 600 hungry and homeless people daily at the First Presbyterian Church in Atlantic City. No one is turned away, and there are no paid employees.

Each month the youth of Holy Trinity and the Holy Trinity Philoptochos make 350 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for the homeless and hungry through Sister Jean's Kitchen in Atlantic City. It costs approximately 42¢ to feed a person. Your financial donation of $5 will feed 12 people. Please consider making a donation today, and be a part of this amazing mission.

$5 feeds 12 people

Scheduling Meetings and Events

In order to avoid scheduling conflicts all parish ministries and organizations must call the church office to schedule all meetings, practices and events.

REQUEST FOR GREETERS

Dear Parishioners,

Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. Romans 15:7

Our wonderful greeter, Marge Adams, has moved to be near her family in Pennsylvania. We are very grateful and inspired by Marge, as she greeted and welcomed our parishioners and visitors, and we thank her for all the years she faithfully served on our Greeter Ministry, since 2013. We wish Marge all the best in her future home and surroundings. She will be greatly missed by all of us. We hope and pray that she will join us from time to time, which she has promised to do.

Please join us as we continue this meaningful ministry, creating more wonderful, first, and continuing impressions. The Great Commission of our Lord begins with us, as greeters, as we welcome everyone, sharing the love of Christ.

If anyone would like to join our wonderful Greeter Ministry, please speak to Ginny Kramvis or email ekramvis@comcast.net
