HOLY TRINITY HERALD

JUNE 2018

Nativity of the Forerunner John the Baptist

He that was greater than all who are born of women, the Prophet who received God's testimony that he surpassed all the Prophets, was born of the aged and barren Elizabeth (Luke 1: 7) and filled all his kinsmen, and those that lived round about, with gladness and wonder. But even more wondrous was that which followed on the eighth day when he was circumcised, that is, the day on which a male child receives his name. Those present called him Zacharias, the name of his father. But the mother said, "Not so, but he shall be called John." Since the child's father was unable to speak, he was asked, by means of a sign, to indicate the child's name. He then asked for a tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And immediately Zacharias' mouth was opened, his tongue was loosed from its silence of nine months, and filled with the Holy Spirit, he blessed the God of Israel, Who had fulfilled the promises made to their fathers, and had visited them that were sitting in darkness and the shadow of death, and had sent to them the light of salvation. Zacharias prophesied concerning the child also, saying that he would be a Prophet of the Most High and Forerunner of Jesus Christ. And the child John, who was filled with grace, grew and waxed strong in the Spirit; and he was in the wilderness until the day of his showing to Israel (Luke 1:57-80). His name is a variation of the Hebrew "Johanan," which means "Yah is gracious."

Philoptochos News June 2018

The Philoptochos Sisters have been busy this Spring with Philanthropy and service to the church.

Our Shop Rite Cards Fund Philanthropy donated $1800 to families in need as requested Father George this Pascha Season.

We participated in the Hope Totes Project of the NJ Metropolis to help survivors of human trafficking. Donna Efstatos volunteered to purchase 50 ankle socks and 50 deodorants for the tote bags and shipped them to the All Saints Greek Orthodox Convent on Long Island where the tote bags were filled with many items to assist women trying to improve their lives.

Presbytera Voula and Faten Dib led the Philoptochos sisters to cook and serve a delicious meal to the young people of Covenant House in Atlantic City. Covenant House helps youth ages 18-22 who are homeless. We also donated $500 to their mission.

Thank you to Youla Mularz for once again assisting with the Pascha Card and making it a great fund raiser for the works of Philoptochos!

Thank you to all who helped at the May Block Party, especially our fearless leader Kelly Kyriakou. We had a beautiful day and raised approximately $2800.

In the church you will notice a few new items to improve our sanctuary. New handrails were installed and purchased by our Philoptochos through the Beautification Committee. Many of our elder parishioners have commented on how happy they are to have them!

There will also be new carpet placed behind the altar and on the Metropolitan's throne, with funds from Philoptochos's Beautification fund.

Philoptochos will be offering the luncheon for the Feast of the Holy Trinity. May God Bless our Holy Trinity Family

Its that time Again!

Dorrie Papademetriou & Presbytera Voula are working to fill the time slots for the pastry booth. We are asking our members to work one 2 hour shift, so no one will have to work full day shifts!! Thank you!!

Wish you a fantastic summer, and if you are traveling, May God be with you and keep you safe in your travels.

With Love in Christ,

Dorrie Papademetriou

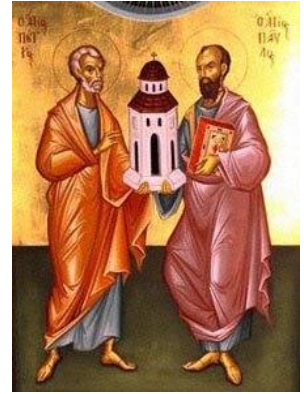

Philoptochos President

Chapter 1040

PHILOPTOCHOS AT THE COVENANT HOUSE

Peter and Paul, the Holy Apostles

The divinely-blessed Peter was from Bethsaida of Galilee. He was the son of Jonas and the brother of Andrew the First-called. He was a fisherman by trade, unlearned and poor, and was called Simon; later he was renamed Peter by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, Who looked at him and said, "Thou art Simon the son of Jonas; thou shalt be called Cephas (which is by interpretation, Peter)" (John 1:42). On being raised by the Lord to the dignity of an Apostle and becoming inseparable from Him as His zealous disciple, he followed Him from the beginning of His preaching of salvation up until the very Passion, when, in the court of Caiaphas the high priest, he denied Him thrice because of his fear of the Jews and of the danger at hand. But again, after many bitter tears, he received complete forgiveness of his transgression. After the Resurrection of Christ and the descent of the Holy Spirit, he preached in Judea, Antioch, and certain parts of Asia, and finally came to Rome, where he was crucified upside down by Nero, and thus he ascended to the eternal habitations about the year 66 or 68, leaving two Catholic (General) Epistles to the Church of Christ.

Paul, the chosen vessel of Christ, the glory of the Church, the Apostle of the Nations and teacher of the whole world, was a Jew by race, of the tribe of Benjamin, having Tarsus as his homeland. He was a Roman citizen, fluent in the Greek language, an expert in knowledge of the Law, a Pharisee, born of a Pharisee, and a disciple of Gamaliel, a Pharisee and notable teacher of the Law in Jerusalem. For this cause, from the beginning, Paul was a most fervent zealot for the traditions of the Jews and a great persecutor of the Church of Christ; at that time, his name was Saul (Acts 22:3-4). In his great passion of rage and fury against the disciples of the Lord, he went to Damascus bearing letters of introduction from the high priest. His intention was to bring the disciples of Christ back to Jerusalem in bonds. As he was approaching Damascus, about midday there suddenly shone upon him a light from Heaven. Falling on the earth, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me?" And he asked, "Who art Thou, Lord?" And the Lord said, "I am Jesus Whom thou persecutest; it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks." And that heavenly voice and brilliance made him tremble, and he was blinded for a time. He was led by the hand into the city, and on account of a divine revelation to the Apostle Ananias (see Oct. 1), he was baptized by him, and both his bodily and spiritual eyes were opened to the knowledge of the Sun of Righteousness. And straightway- O wondrous transformation! - beyond all expectation, he spoke with boldness in the synagogues, proclaiming that "Christ is the Son of God" (Acts 9:1-21). As for his zeal in preaching the Gospel after these things had come to pass, as for his unabating labors and afflictions of diverse kinds, the wounds, the prisons, the bonds, the beatings, the stonings, the shipwrecks, the journeys, the perils on land, on sea, in cities, in wildernesses, the continual vigils, the daily fasting, the hunger, the thirst, the nakedness, and all those other things that he endured for the Name of Christ, and which he underwent before nations and kings and the Israelites, and above all, his care for all the churches, his fiery longing for the salvation of all, whereby he became all things to all men, that he might save them all if possible, and because of which, with his heart aflame, he continuously traveled throughout all parts, visiting them all, and like a bird of heaven flying from Asia and Europe, the West and East, neither staying nor abiding in any one place - all these things are related incident by incident in the Book of the Acts, and as he himself tells them in his Epistles. His Epistles, being fourteen in number, are explained in 250 homilies by the divine Chrysostom and make manifest the loftiness of his thoughts, the abundance of the revelations made to him, the wisdom given to him from God, wherewith he brings together in a wondrous manner the Old with the New Testaments, and expounds the mysteries thereof which had been concealed under types; he confirms the doctrines of the Faith, expounds the ethical teaching of the Gospel, and demonstrates with exactness the duties incumbent upon every rank, age, and order of man. In all these things his teaching proved to be a spiritual trumpet, and his speech was seen to be more radiant than the sun, and by these means he clearly sounded forth the word of truth and illumined the ends of the world. Having completed the work of his ministry, he likewise ended his life in martyrdom when he was beheaded in Rome during the reign of Nero, at the same time, some say, when Peter was crucified.

HOLY TRINITY PB&J PROJECT FOR SISTER JEAN'S KITCHEN

Nearly twenty years ago, a retired casino chef, Sister Jean Webster, opened her kitchen to a homeless man. Today, her operation has grown and relocated, providing food for 600 hungry and homeless people daily at the First Presbyterian Church in Atlantic City. No one is turned away, and there are no paid employees.

Each month the youth of Holy Trinity and the Holy Trinity Philoptochos make 350 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for the homeless and hungry through Sister Jean's Kitchen in Atlantic City. It costs approximately 42¢ to feed a person. Your financial donation of $5 will feed 12 people. Please consider making a donation today, and be a part of this amazing mission.

Dear Friends,

Volunteers in Medicine (VIM) operates two free clinics in South Jersey to serve the needs of the uninsured and underserved. VIM is an integral part of the health and well-being of our community. We not only provide care for our less fortunate residents but opportunities to serve for those more blessed.

We hope that you will consider partnering with VIM in our efforts to provide free health care to patients with acute and chronic illnesses; patients who have no health insurance and who fall between the cracks in the health care system; patients who have nowhere else to turn.

Please share the enclosed brochures and flyers. If you are aware of someone who may need our services, encourage them to contact us. Please consider a donation to VIM. As Dr. Jack McConnell, founder and visionary of Volunteers in Medicine, wrote:

"No town can become a community as long as we leave behind a segment of the population in need of the basics of life."

We appreciate any support you can provide to Volunteers in Medicine as together we strive to fulfill our mission of "neighbors caring for neighbors." Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Meiluta
Executive Director

PS I would love to show you our clinic or meet with you or your groups to speak about what we do. Please call my cell (609) 320-6397 or email at jmeiluta@vimsj.org.

Mental Health Association in Atlantic County

During the month of May, which is Mental Health Awareness Month, our agency is providing information to faith leaders and service organizations. My hope is that you can share our agency's resources and connect people to help when necessary. Most services provided are no cost. Enclosed you will find information cards on each of the programs we offer.

Our Intensive Family Support Services assist family members who are supporting a loved one living with a mental illness. Staff meet one-on-one in person, conference by phone, as well as host monthly support group meetings. The goals are to provide education and help to family members as they navigate systems related to their loved one's treatment and care.

Another program we offer, Peer Outreach Support Team, supports individuals who live with a mental illness ranging from anxiety and depression to bipolar disorder. Individuals can receive support from a peer (someone with lived experience with mental health/illness) who assists them on their road to recovery. Goals can include assistance with housing, treatment, employment and others.

Each month, our staff facilitates support group meetings in locations throughout the county on topics such as hoarding disorder, eating disorder, adult survivors of child abuse, depression, anxiety and others. I'm including a monthly calendar about these meetings. If you would like to receive our calendar, you can subscribe by calling our office 652-3800 and ask to be added to our support group calendar email list.

A team of staff persons here also offers training and certification for Mental Health First Aid, a class that educates community members about risk factors/warning signs related to mental illness and addiction. Participants learn how to react and what resources are available.

I would like to direct you to our website, www.MHAAC.info which is an extensive resource for mental health referrals and help. It explains various components of the mental health field and provides lists of organizations that offer those services.

I'd be happy to take the time to speak to you in further detail and answer any questions you may have. I'd also be willing to drop off or mail additional printed materials like those I've enclosed.

Thank you for your time and service to the community.

Sincerely,
Vicki Phillips, Executive Director
